

The share of households with loans is slightly higher than the eurozone average.

Figure 3
The Share of Households with Loans, Israel and the Eurozone^a, 2013–16 (percent)

^a Eurozone countries excluding Lithuania and plus Poland and Hungary. The data on European countries are for 2013–15. The data for Israel are for 2016.

SOURCE: Eurozone—Eurosystem Household Finance and Consumption Survey, second wave (European Central Bank); Israel— Based on Central Bureau of Statistics.