

BANK OF ISRAEL

February 23, 2023

Call for candidates for the position of Supervisor of Banks

The Governor of the Bank of Israel has decided to establish a committee to find candidates for the position of Supervisor of Banks.

The Committee will be led by Deputy Governor Andrew Abir. Its members will include Bank of Israel Legal Counsel Adv. Tida Shamir; Roni Tzidkiyahu, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Negev Industrial Minerals; and Adv. Michal Halprin, Senior Research Associate at the Harvard Kennedy School of Government.

Description of the position:

The Supervisor of Banks is responsible for the supervision and regulation of the Israeli banking system, and is a member of the Bank of Israel's management.

Minimum job requirements:

1. At least 5 years of management experience in senior positions in the banking, finance, or other relevant fields.
2. Recognized Bachelor's degree.

Additional qualifications:

1. Proven high-level management abilities
2. Strong acquaintance with the public sector
3. Strong acquaintance with the banking sector
4. Strong acquaintance with technological innovation in the financial field
5. High level of written and oral communications in Hebrew and in English
6. Academic degree in Economics, Business Management, or Accounting – advantage
7. Master's degree in a field relevant to the position – advantage.

Comments:

- The Committee is permitted to set criteria and standards beyond the minimum conditions, and additional tools to filter candidates, at its discretion, including the use of external assessment institutions.
- The search committee and the Governor reserve the right to contact candidates who did not submit candidacies, at any time. Such candidates will be required to meet all of the conditions required of all other candidates.
- The position is by personal contract, for a term of five years.

Please submit curriculum vitae to the search committee via the committee's secretary, Ms. Adi Schweg by email to apply\_supervisor@boi.org.il or by fax to 077-898-4804. The submission deadline is March 12, 2023, 22 Adar 5783.